This classic French dish is the perfect choice for Valentine's Day dinner. I used dry Burgundy wine that gives the slow-cooked meat an amazing deep flavour. It's delicious, really simple and can be cooked even by a novice. Compared to traditional beef bourguignon, I skipped the pearl onions to reduce the carb count. I used a carrot in mine and although it doesn't add too many carbs, I listed this ingredient as "optional".

Cooking with Alcohol - Is it Keto?

Although alcohol is on the "consume rarely" ketogenic food list, you can use it for cooking. It does not "cook out" during the boiling process completely but the remaining content is negligible. The longer you cook your meal for, the less alcohol your meal will retain. If you slow cook the meal like I did, you will end up with less than 5% of the original alcohol content. That's similar to using vanilla extract in a keto crème brûlée!

Hands-on 20 minutes

Overall 4 hours

Ingredients (makes 6 servings)

2-3 large beef braising steaks or any cut suitable for slow cooking (900 g/ 2 lb)

3 tbsp ghee or lard (45 g/ 1.6 oz)

3 cloves garlic, crushed

1 medium white onion, diced (110 g/ 3.9 oz)

Optional: 1 medium carrot, sliced (60 g/ 2.1 oz) + 0.7 g net carbs per serving

750 ml bottle dry red wine such as Burgundy

1 tbsp unsweetened tomato puree (paste)

1 bouquet garni (parsley, thyme, peppercorns, cloves and bay leaves)

4 cups white mushrooms, sliced (300 g/ 10.6 oz)

8 slices bacon, sliced (240 g/ 8.5 oz)

1 tsp salt or to taste (I like pink Himalayan)

Optional: ¹/₂ - 1 cup water, chicken stock or bone broth if too thick

Instructions

- 1
- Cut the beef into large chunks and season with some salt. Heat a Dutch oven or a heavy-based pot of ghee. Fry the beef chunks over a medium-high heat until golden brown for about 3 minutes. Turn the beef over and brown for 3 more minutes. Work in batches so the pot doesn't get crowded.

- 2 Remove the chunks from the pot and place into a bowl.

- 3 Lower the heat and add diced onion, crushed garlic and sliced carrot (if used).

- 4 Return the beef chunks to the pot. Pour in the red wine and add tomato paste. The meat should almost be covered. If needed, add $\frac{1}{2}$ - 1 cup water or broth (I didn't use any). Bring to a boil and mix well with a spatula scraping the caramelised cooking juices from the bottom of the pot.

- 5 Add your bouquet garni. You can make your bouquet garni by using 2-4 sprigs parsley, 1-2 sprigs thyme, 1-2 bay leaves and 2-3 cloves. Simply place all the herbs in a piece of cheesecloth and tying with an elastic band. Place the bouquet garni in the pot, cover with a lid and cook for 3 to 3 $\frac{1}{2}$ hours over a low heat.

- 6 When the meat is tender, take off the heat. Use a spatula to remove the bouquet garni from the pot and cover it with a lid.

- 7 Prepare the bacon and mushrooms. Grease a pan with the remaining ghee and add the sliced  con. Cook for about 5 minutes until lightly browned and then add the mushrooms. Cook for another 4-5 minutes or until tenc

- 8 When the mushrooms and bacon are ready, take off the heat and place in the pot with beef. Mix until well combined.

- 9 Serve with Celeriac Cauli-Mash or regular Keto Cauli-Mash. Store in the fridge for up to 5 days or freeze the stew for up to 3 months.

Martina Clement

I changed the way I ate in 2011, when I was diagnosed with Hashimoto's, an autoimmune disease that affects the thyroid. I had no energy, and I found it more and more difficult to maintain a healthy weight.

That's when I decided to quit sugar, grains, and processed foods, and to start following a whole-foods-based ketogenic approach to food.

Hi,
How long does this store in the fridge for and can it be frozen? If so, how long for? Looking for some winter ideas now and this looks fab!

I fixed this for my husband and I for Valentine's Day, along with your Keto Cauli-Mash. They were absolutely superb and complemented each other so well! My husband kept making yummy sounds and saying how delicious it was. Thanks for a fantastic recipe!

I am really confused maybe I am adding my carbs wrong I am trying to stay under 50g per day but it seems this dish is only 8.3 carbs I don't understand what I am doing wrong. What do you suggest? what is the matl protein in a meal. there is no way I can exist on a piece of chicken breast that is 100g a day.

Hi Billy, you need to use a tracker if you want to count your macros. Estimating is not ideal if you follow a ketogenic diet, especially if you are new to it. If you have an iPad, you can try my app: ketodietapp.com/ (you'll be able to see both total and net carbs although the app primarily tracks net carbs).

Great recipe! Everyone enjoyed it and not even my husband made a comment about my "keto food"! Served with spaghetti squash and creamed spinach..it was a hit!

Hi! I was just wondering if I could leave it in a crockpot (slow-cooker) for the 3-4h it needs to cook rather than on the stove? - slightly paranoid of leaving it unattended and forgetting about it!
Thanks 😊

Hi Kate ⚡ you definitely can but I'd cook it for even longer.. I'd say about 6 hours depending on the setting 😊
